GREEN WEEK

APRIL 16-20

NET IMPACT
UNC Kenan-Flagler

Join UNC Kenan-Flagler and the Net Impact Club for events throughout the week to celebrate sustainability and giving back.

Breakfast Treats & Coffee

Monday
9 - 11 am

-Snacks and coffee provided by Net Impact to start your week off right.

-Bring your reusable mug to fill up on coffee - we won't have paper cups!

Design Thinking Workshop

Monday
12:30 - 2 pm

-Join Professor Al Segars to tackle a Nike challenge through design thinking

-Lunch will be provided

-Space is limited, so email Ariel Shah (ariel_shah@kenan-flagler.unc.edu) to reserve your spot.

Green Week Fair & Clothing Swap

Wednesday
11:30 am - 2:30 pm

-Food from Chirba Chirba food truck

-Local & sustainable entrepreneurs like Elemental Jewelry, and CompostNow

-Clothing Swap: Bring in items in your closet that are in good shape but just no longer the right fit for you and trade for items you'll wear and love. Items will be collected by Tina Jeffress/Net Impact in McColl beginning the morning of Monday, April 16.

Documentary Screening

Thursday
6 - 8:30 pm

-Join director Jeff Mittlestadt (MBA '07, MA Journalism '12) for a screening of Staring Down Fate, a documentary about a red wolf biologist with ALS, and a story about living our lives with purpose.

-Following the screening, stick around for a panel discussion and to hear Jeff speak about creating the film.

Register: https://tinyurl.com/y8ewrkm8

Wear It Wise Case Competition

Friday
9 am - 1:30 pm

-Teams of three will take part in this mini case competition highlighting opportunities & challenges in pursuing sustainable fashion.

-Sponsored by Eileen Fisher and the Levi Strauss Foundation

-Food and beverages will be provided throughout the day.

-Open to undergrads and MBAs. Please contact Tina Jeffress and Soraya Alivandi with any questions and to sign up.

Register for lunch and panel:
https://goo.gl/forms/C8Q5YhCLKF9WJWhO2